

Consent to the use and disclosure of still and moving images and your personal information (NDSS Peer Support Program support group registration and/or personal stories)

Activity: NDSS Peer Support Program support group registration and/or personal stories

I, agree to participate (or have previously participated) in an activity where content of me is being captured by, or on behalf of, or made available to Diabetes Australia (as the administrator of the NDSS). This content may include my name, contact details, still (photograph) and moving images (video), interviews and recordings, regarding the National Diabetes Services Scheme (NDSS) and its services.

I give permission for this content to be:

- Used in promotional, advertising, educational and other materials of Diabetes Australia for NDSS purposes such as to raise awareness of diabetes, to promote the objectives of the NDSS and Diabetes Australia more broadly and to support the objectives of the NDSS Peer Support Website; and/or
- Provided to any third party, including the Commonwealth of Australia (as represented by the Department of Health and Aged Care), media organisations and NDSS service providers, for their use for NDSS purposes.

I understand the content may include personal information, including name, contact details, personal experience with diabetes, and/or personal experiences with the NDSS, NDSS programs and support services and Diabetes Australia. This is considered 'personal information' under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), and Diabetes Australia needs your consent to use it.

I understand the content may be used in various media formats including online media, social media, print, newspaper, video, public displays, television and electronic means of communication and in any edited form. I understand that information published online is accessible by the public and may be accessed outside Australia.

I understand if I wish to withdraw permission for content to be used, I must inform Diabetes Australia in writing. I understand that if I so withdraw permission for the content to be used, Diabetes Australia will cease any future new publication or use of the content, but the content may have been downloaded, published on websites not controlled by Diabetes Australia and/or appear in printed and electronic material which has already been produced or disseminated.

I understand that when the content is no longer needed for the purposes set out, Diabetes Australia will take reasonable steps to destroy, or de-identify it, in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

I understand that if I do not consent, Diabetes Australia will not hold, use or disclose any content or personal information from the activity.
